

PLAGIARISM SCAN REPORT

Date	2020-05-14
------	------------

Words	441
-------	-----

Characters	2442
------------	------

Content Checked For Plagiarism

In this section, I will recommend some of the solution of the problem that the society in the Pakistan is facing right now. If you apply these solution into the problems, then the society will become the proper balance and everyone would live according to their will and dreams. These recommend of the solution are: ? Education institutions would be improved and should give a reasonable fees to the poor family and the quality of the teaching would better improved. ? Health institutions would improve their treatment more and should give a reasonable fees to the poor family. ? A court will give the fair decisions among the people especially in case the rich people. Because rich people always get away from his or her case through their powers even though he or she did something wrong. ? Income would be given in the same amount of money to the women as they give to the men. ? We should give equal amount of rights to the poor people, women and black as they give an equal amount of rights to the rich people, men and white ? We should give the punishment to the criminal even though he or she is a Prime Minister of Pakistan or Powerful men or women. ? The government should reduce their taxes rates so that middle class people and poor people could able to give the taxes to the government. ? The government should also focus on the infrastructure of the rural area as they are lacking of infrastructures. ? The seller should sell their things like houses or cars etc on the reasonable prices to the people of the society. ? The people should improve themselves first in the right way then they should look upon the other mistakes. ? We should live our life according to the culture of the Pakistan and Islam. These are the some recommendations of the solution that I like to recommend you to apply these solution to solve these problem. These are the best solution to solve these problems. If we stand united and only thinking about the betterment of Pakistan, then there are no one to stop us. If we are start to think about ourselves not others, then the united bond would be broken and there will be a chance to allow to increase the problems and the stress of these problem would be upon those who are suffering from this and on the government. You see that our only work is to be united with other people of the Pakistan and stop thinking about yourself and do something for the betterment of the Pakistan.

Matched Source

No plagiarism found