The topic of this report is the Psychological Impact of the class disparity in Pakistan. Actually, you can see in this report that what are the main reason behind the class difference between rich people, middle-class people and poor people and how we can overcome this problem? On the basis of this question, this report has been divided into five parts. Actually this report is consisted of five questions. These questions are asked regarding to the main topics. Actually, we want find the main reason that why in Pakistan, the rich become richer and the poor become more poorer or why there would be more priority for the men than women or why they respected toward the white and disrespected the black. And how we can overcome this problems so that we can live in the society where the society is give a respect as well as admire to the poor people in the same way as they do to the rich people. We wanted to live in the society where there would be no class difference between rich people, middle-class people and poor people or a men and a women or black and white, there should be equal treated between them. This is what we want the people to understand that this is a society where we want to live. But people, nowadays, are running back to the money so that people living in the society would acknowledge him and respect him. We should need to create a society where every person should respect every other person in the society. In this report, we write the every possibility that could be create to increase the class difference between rich people, middle class people and poor people or men and women or black and white. This possibilities would be increase day by day if we could not find a way to overcome this problem. There was always a way to overcome this situation, but we or the individual person doesn't steps out to overcome this situation. These ways are by educating them, taught them about their rights, given their equal rights, given equal respected among the people living in the society and try to give them what they have deserve. But people in the society, especially in Pakistan, were not given equal their rights and respect and this is the biggest problem in the society. This biggest problem should lead the society to the injustice, where the powerful man will always win and poorest people would die because they have nothing to live upon, their hopes and dream become broken. We as the nation should stand up and stop the injustice that would be creating day by day in the society. If we stop the injustice in the society and given equal them their rights and respect then the whole nation would be slowly slowly become just like our society. And if the individual person become the right man and give other people some respect, then the society would become slowly slowly become just like them. You see, if we stand up as hero who help others, respect others or given their rights, then we should overcome this problem and the whole nation become peaceful country.
